I Read and passed the accounts of Receipts and Disbursements for the months of June 1887.

II Read correspondence regarding the levy of Shop tax on Tailors &c The Vice-President explained that as kept Shops in Clichmaglen however petty their trade might be were taxed on the Shop tax, that as the Correspondence showed that Tailors who kept Shops in other Municipalities were not exempted from tax there was no reason to exempt the Shops of Tailors in Clichmaglen

that there were several Tailors in Clichmaglen
who were carrying on their professions in their houses and stitched small saleable articles and sold them at different Shops. He added that that was not the case with those people of whom he was speaking - that those people had their houses where the female and infirm people worked for their livelihood, but the other Members of the Panel had opened shops in the main Bazar along with the other trading classes and contended that these shops were liable to be taxed like same instances of the shops of ironsmiths, leaf sellers and others & shops all of which were taxed.

Mr. Sreenivasa Rao objected to the proposal as being an unnecessary burden on them. He said they were only a class of petty dealers who did not make much profit. Hespoke very highly of Gowda and Bakar Sahib &c. &c. him.

But Mr. Nicolas and Mr. Cross thought that when some of the neighbouring District Municipalities taxed this Class of shops, it was nothing but right that be taxed at Chichmaglur.

The Vice President having moved a motion Mr Lincoln and Mr Chase seconded that the Shops of Tailors should be taxed like all other Shops

the water along the town and during the wet and cold season, it becomes still more objectionable as the water percolates through backyards and privies and makes some of the houses almost uninhabitable and suggested the advisability of laying out Mangalore tile pipes in the town for the conveyance of water. The matter being discussed the President remarked that iron pipes would serve better, but they were very costly.

It was resolved that a provision of Rs.1000/- for experimenting the use of tile pipes, be made in the ensuing year's Budget. But as this sum is hardly sufficient, further resolved that the President be asked to move the Government for a loan of 10,000/- Rs for laying out pipes thro' the whole town of Chikmagalur.
